We start - ed from the Val - ley Pride, And Farn - ham way we went,..... We wait - ed by the co-ver side But ne - ver found a scent.

Then we tried the wi-thy beds Which grow by Frensham town, And there we found the old gray fox Which lives on Hank-ley Down. The Mem-ber rode his tho-rough bred, the Doc-tor had the gray, The Sol-dier led on a roan red, The Sai-lor rode the bay. Squire was there on his I-rish mare, And Par-son on the brown, And so we chased the old gray fox A - cross the Hank - ley Down

And

so we chased the old gray fox A - cross the Hank - ley Down

The

Doctor's gray was going strong Un - til she slipped and fell, He had to keep his bed so long His patients all got well. The Member he had lost his seat,'Twas carried by his horse; And so we chased the old gray fox That earthed in Hankley Gorse. The Parson sad-ly fell a-way, And in the furze did lie, The words we heard that Par-son say Made all the hor-ses shy. The Sai - lor he was seen no more Up - on that stormy bay, But still we chased the old gray fox Through all the win - ter's day

But still we chased the old gray fox Through all the win - ter's

when we found him gone to ground, They sent for spade and man; But Squire said "Shame!" the beast was game! A gam - er nev - er ran! His wind and pace have won the race, His life is fair - ly won, But may we meet the old gray fox Be - fore the year is done. So here's to the mas - ter; And here's to the man, And here's to twenty couple Of the white and black and tan. Here's a find with-out a wait, Here's a hedge with-out a gate, Here's the man who fol - lows straight Where the old fox ran.

deliberately.

Here's the man who fol-lows straight Where the old fox ran.
